

Hometown Puzzle

Where you live is a bit of a puzzle

This superb 400-piece jigsaw puzzle is individually created using high-quality, full color extracts from the renowned US Geological Survey mapping – centered on your own home.

These exciting jigsaws illustrate, amongst other fascinating details, named main roads, transport infrastructure and show notable buildings and structures. Simply provide a full street address, city, state, etc. when ordering. The made-to-order jigsaw covers an area 6 miles east-to-west and 4 miles north-to-south with your house in the center. The result? A unique puzzle that will certainly draw on local knowledge and make an exciting and unusual gift for “armchair explorers” anywhere. The centerpiece is shaped like a house. Coverage for a range of countries outside of North America is also available – please enquire.

New York Times Front Page Puzzle

Make a gift of history for a present not forgotten

The past meets the present with this exciting gift idea featuring a front page of The New York Times newspaper on the date of your choice (1888 to the present date). These made-to-order jigsaws are created using high quality reproductions taken from original – and increasingly rare – archive newspapers dating back over 100 years. The centerpiece is shaped like an open newspaper.

US Constitution Puzzle

We The People coming together!

500-piece, double-sided jigsaw puzzle featuring a superb reproduction of the original US Constitution on one side and a modern day easy-to-read translation of the text on the reverse. The puzzle (assembled size 23½ x 15¾ inches) features 13 “novelty” shaped pieces: the centerpiece is The Liberty Bell while the remaining 12 (scattered throughout the jigsaw) are shaped to represent the outlines of the 12 original States of the Union (Rhode Island signed up later).
